

A BIRTHDAY DEDICATION / 21 JULY 2026

For Lily Chen

Happy Birthday, Lily.

I wanted to give you something that no ordinary calendar could contain:
a light imagined beyond our horizon, carrying your name through a system of worlds that will keep moving long after this day has passed.

May Liliun Aeternum remind you that you are cherished beyond distance and time.
May every new year bring you a wider sky, a steadier courage, and beautiful discoveries that are entirely your own.

Wherever life takes us, I hope you will always know that someone once looked toward the stars and thought of you.

With all my best wishes,

Xie Yao Zhong
