

For Lily Chen

A Sky Kept for You

LILIUM AETERNUM / NOCTUA-LILY-0724

Happy Birthday, Lily.

I wanted to give you something quieter than a grand gesture and longer-lasting than a single day: a small sky imagined with care, carrying your name through a family of worlds.

May Lilium Aeternum remind you that you are cherished beyond distance and time. May every year bring you a wider horizon, a steady courage, and discoveries that feel wholly your own.

Wherever life takes you, I hope you will remember that someone once looked toward the stars and thought of you.

With warmest wishes,

Xie Yao Zhong
